

Week of July 8

The Universal, All-inclusive, Inexhaustible Christ

The central thought of Leviticus is that the universal, all-inclusive, inexhaustible Christ is everything to God and to God's people. (msg. 3, III) Through our daily eating, digesting, and assimilating of Him, He fills us and constitutes us with Himself so that He may train us to rest in Him, live a holy, clean and rejoicing life, satisfy Him, serve Him, and express Him.

“Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, Speak to all the assembly of the children of Israel, and say to them, You shall be holy, for I, Jehovah your God, am holy.” (Lev. 19:1-2)

“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, As to the appointed feasts of Jehovah, which you shall proclaim as holy convocations, these are My appointed feasts. Six days work shall be done, but on the seventh day there is a Sabbath of complete rest, a holy convocation.” (Lev. 23:2-3a)

College Training

The West Coast South College Training is this week, July 9 to 15, at Oak Glen. Pray for all registered students to attend and to see and enter into the experience of their new heart and new spirit. Pray also for the Lord's leading to the serving saints in their preparations. And pray for the students to be brought into function in the gospel.

Four more one-week college trainings in other parts of the country start July 13, 14, or 15.

Summer School of Truth

The Summer School of Truth is a time that gives life to the young people in the form of God's word as food. This summer it is July 20 to 28, for those who are entering 7th to 12th grades. The topic is: The Church. We ask the Lord that as many young people as possible in LA could attend, along with many young adults to shepherd them both now and after the summer school. Please pray that the Lord would lead the serving ones as they continue to fellowship and coordinate for this critical time.
